The Honorable
 William J. Casey
 Director
 Central Intelligence Agency
 Washington, DC 20505

Dear Bill:

I would like to invite the continued participation of the Central Intelligence Agency in the Atlantic Council's Fellowship Program for the 1985-86 academic year.

This will be the fifth year of our Fellows Program. During the current year, we have officers in our program from the Departments of State and Defense, USIA, the Library of Congress, and the private sector. In addition, we have several international Visiting Fellows in residence.

STAT

We have been extremely pleased with the substantive contributions and excellent working relationships of [redacted]
 Senior Fellow from the CIA in [redacted]

We believe that the Fellowship Program provides outstanding individuals with an opportunity to further expand their knowledge and understanding of international affairs through a program of individual study and research, and through extensive participation in the Council's program of meetings and working groups.

-2-

During the year they are with us, Senior Fellows have the opportunity to investigate a wide range of political, economic, security and informational problems and multilateral means of dealing with them. They are able to meet, hear and work with the exceptionally qualified present and former civilian and military government officials, business leaders and academics who make up the Council's Board of Directors and its Committees and Working Groups. The Working Groups which will be operating during the coming year include:

- o US Policy Toward the Soviet Union: A Long-Term Western Perspective, 1985-2000.
- o Avoiding War and Controlling Arms: Toward the Year 2000.
- o The President, the Executive Branch and the Congress in Foreign Policy.
- o The Successor Generation.
- o Young Leaders Seminars.
- o US-Japan Energy Relationships in the 1980s.
- o Energy Supply and Use in Developing Countries: A Fresh Look at Western (OECD) Interests and Policy Options.
- o Strengthening Interparliamentary Consultation: A Pacific Caucus.
- o Taiwan in the Next Decade: Western Interests and Options.
- o The Interrelationship of Atlantic and Pacific Security: Allied Interests and US Policy Options.

Participation in the work of these groups provides a Senior Fellow with the opportunity to secure wider understanding and perspectives of these problems and of the inter-relationship of political, economic, security and psychological factors. Fellows will be chosen from Agency nominees by a Selection Committee made up of selected Directors of the Council and which I will chair.

The Fellowships are scheduled for one year, usually commencing in September. In lieu of tuition, there will be a resident fee of $7,000 per year per Fellow. Nominations should be addressed to me at your earliest convenience.

We hope you will join with us in continuing this Fellowship Program.

Sincerely,

Kenneth Rush
